

Public Good Scholarship Fund
Final Project Report

Congratulations on coming to the end of your Public Good Project. To meet the funding requirement that you submit a final report, please answer the following questions.

Please note that we may use information shared in this report in CCESL communications (e.g., we may highlight quotes from this report in our Annual Report or newsletter; include numbers of individuals affected by this work in reporting; etc.).

Please submit this report to ccesl@du.edu with the subject FINAL PG PROJECT REPORT in the subject line.

Name:

Project Title:

Start Date:

1. In 500-750 words, please summarize the project goals and accomplishments, including the tangible benefits of this project for your community partner(s). This summary may be published in CCESL's Public Good Impact newsletter. Thus, the summary should be accessible to an interdisciplinary audience.
2. Describe the impact of your project on the public perception of DU and/or your ongoing work (i.e. media publicity, scholarly publications, or other grants/funding generated):
3. Describe the scholarship (e.g. articles, conference presentations) you have produced or will you produce as a result of your work.
4. In an effort to track the number of individuals affected by this work, please provide feedback on the number of participating:
 - a. Undergraduate students:
 - b. Graduate students:
 - c. Staff:
 - d. Faculty:
 - e. Community individuals:
 - f. Community partners:
5. Please list the name of the community partners involved in this project and a short description of their work.