

FINANCIAL WELLNESS

Money Management Resources for DU Students

WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW?

College students benefit from a basic understanding of the following subjects:

- Budgeting
- Saving
- Student Loan Repayment
- Credit Cards & Credit Scores

MONEY 101

Money 101 is a free online financial literacy program from the Colorado Department of Higher Education.

This resource includes courses, tools, calculators, and videos specific to college students.

www.cicmoney101.org

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS

The DU Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships website includes Financial Wellness resources.

This resource includes upcoming webinars, access to the online CashCourse financial literacy program, and planning tools for summer term and study abroad.

www.du.edu/admission-aid/financial-aid

HEALTH & COUNSELING CENTER

The DU Health & Counseling Center website includes Financial Well-Being resources.

This resource includes links to relevant campus resources such as student employment and the student assistance fund.

www.du.edu/health-and-counseling-center/healthpromotion

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC ADVISING

STUDENT SUCCESS COACHING IS AVAILABLE TO HELP YOU NAVIGATE FINANCIAL RESOURCES!

WWW.DU.EDU/ACE * ACE@DU.EDU