

Leadership Studies Minor

24 Credit Hours

The Colorado Women's College Women's Leadership Scholars Program is a cohort learning experience that develops diverse, thoughtful, civically-responsible, and emerging women leaders. Community-based learning and problem solving are threaded throughout the four-year experience, in both local and global contexts. Workshops and mentoring guide students in developing workplace readiness and leadership skills to meet the demands for a more gender inclusive 21st century.

Year 1

- Fall Quarter - LDRS 2017: Inclusive Leadership (2 credits)
- Winter Quarter - LDRS 2018: Leadership: From Theory to Innovation (2 credits)
- Spring Quarter - LDRS 2019: Teaming for Social Change (2 credits)

Year 2

- Fall Quarter - LDRS 2040: Leading Community Change (4 credits)
- Winter Quarter - LDRS 2050: Collaborative Leadership: Local Perspectives (2 credits)
- Spring Quarter - LDRS 2060: Collaborative Leadership: Global Perspectives (2 credits)

Years 3 & 4

- LDRS 3000: Capstone: Leadership Ethics (4 credits)
- Electives: (6 credits)
- Study Abroad Options
- Internship and Mentoring Opportunities